Reflector 1984

Ferndale Area H.S.
600 Harlan Ave.
Johnstown, PA

Once upon a time, a long time ago, or so it seemed, a young prince and a young princess set out on a journey. Many before them had taken this trip, but no two were ever quite the same. This is but a brief synopsis of that long, weary, yet so worthwhile, trip.

Dedication

Dean Allison

When we, the senior REFLECTOR members, got together to decide upon dedication, we were looking for someone who had touched nearly everyone at FAHS with a seemingly magic wand. Mr. Dean Smith filled the part very well. He goes above and beyond the call of his duties as a bus driver. He can be seen at almost all sporting events cheering the black and gold onto victory. We think of him as more than our bus driver: we think of him as a friend. After all, he has been responsible for our safety many times and has incredible patience which must surely be tried everytime there is a field trip. Fortunately for us, he forgives and forgets. For all of this and much more, we'd like to say "Thanks!"

PATRONS

To those who helped with the financial needs of the publication of the 1984 REFLECTOR this acknowledgement is given.

FAHS Tales

Throughout their journey, the prince and the princess had some extra help. This help came in the form of wizards, teaching them right from wrong, nouns from verbs, circles from trapezoids. Although these wizards were a great help, sometimes they changed form and became mean and disciplinary dragons with whom the prince and princess had to do battle. Here are the wonderful wizards (or at times demanding dragons).

Athletics were also a big part of the prince's and princess' lives. Most sports required much extra time and effort, but, whether followed as a participant or as a spectator, the devotion was inevitably worthwhile.

Finally, the prince and the princess reached the end of their journey. Many times it seemed as though they would not complete the trip; but they survived. This is merely the beginning of a longer, more frightening journey. They have found the real world. They invite one last look at their realm of of 1984.

AS THE 1983-84 SCHOOL YEAR COMES TO AN END, SO DOES OUR FAIRY TALE. THIS YEAR'S REFLECTOR, WITH ITS BEAUTIFUL PRINCESS AND HANDSOME LAD, HAS PROVIDED US WITH A LIGHTEARTED LOOK AT THE PEOPLE, PLACES AND THINGS WHICH HAVE BEEN PART OF OUR EXPERIENCE HERE AT FERNDALE HIGH. REMEMBERING THE PAST AND LOOKING TO THE FUTURE, THE RELATIONSHIPS AND EXPERIENCES THAT HAVE BEEN OURS AT FAHS WILL HELP MAKE OUR STORY READ, "THEY LIVED HAPPILY EVER-AFTER."

Just a man and his computer!

Just me and the boys!

Over here, Steve!

Guys, I told you it wouldn't float!

Peek-a-boo

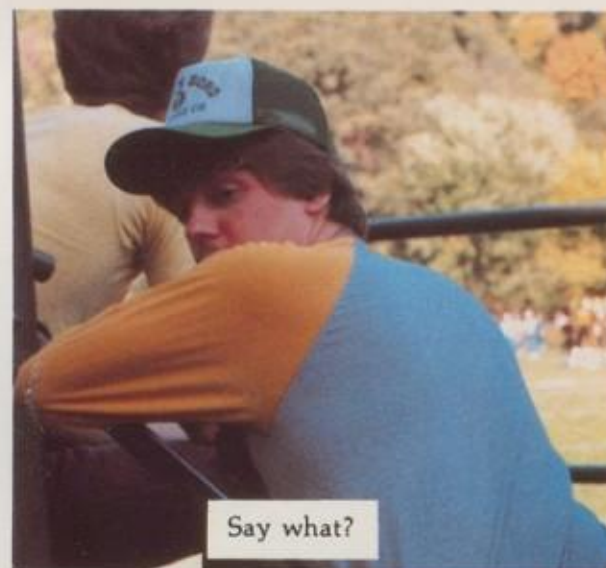

Who can it be now?

Mel and his guinea pigs.

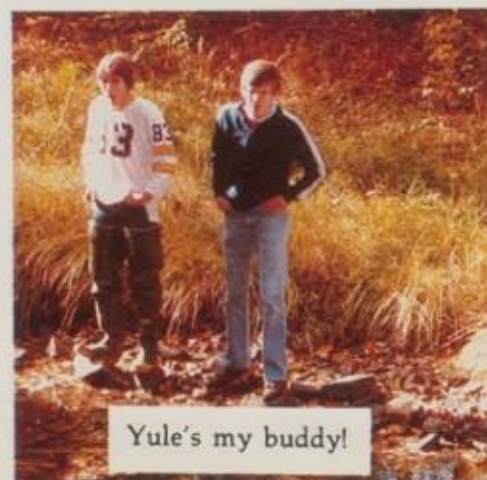

Oh, no! Not the field!

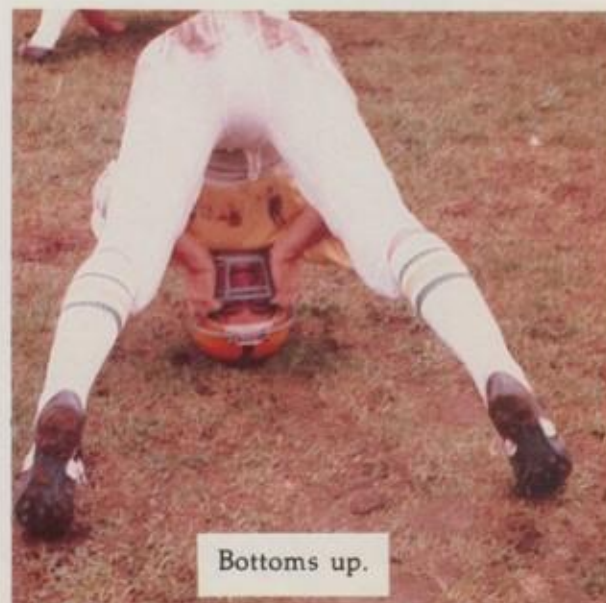

Say what?

Rockettes, here we come.

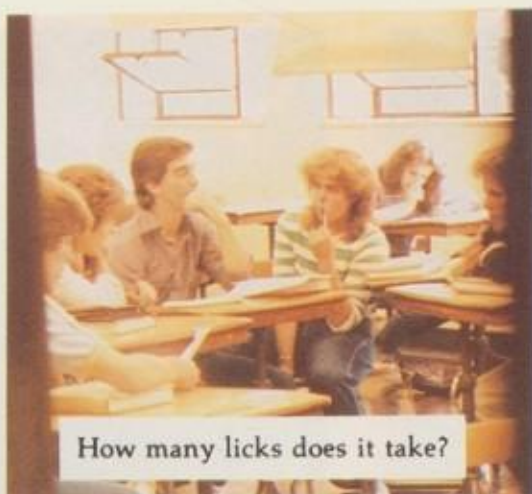

Yule's my buddy!

Bottoms up.

It's not THAT bad!

How many licks does it take?

Caught in the act!

Is this the way to the library?

Leaders of tomorrow?

Roger!!!!!!!

Can't smile without you!

Me and my lonesome.

She's my friend!

Hi there!

"Smile, you're on Candid Camera."

Not me!

Forward!

I'm gonna get you.

Boring!

We see the light!

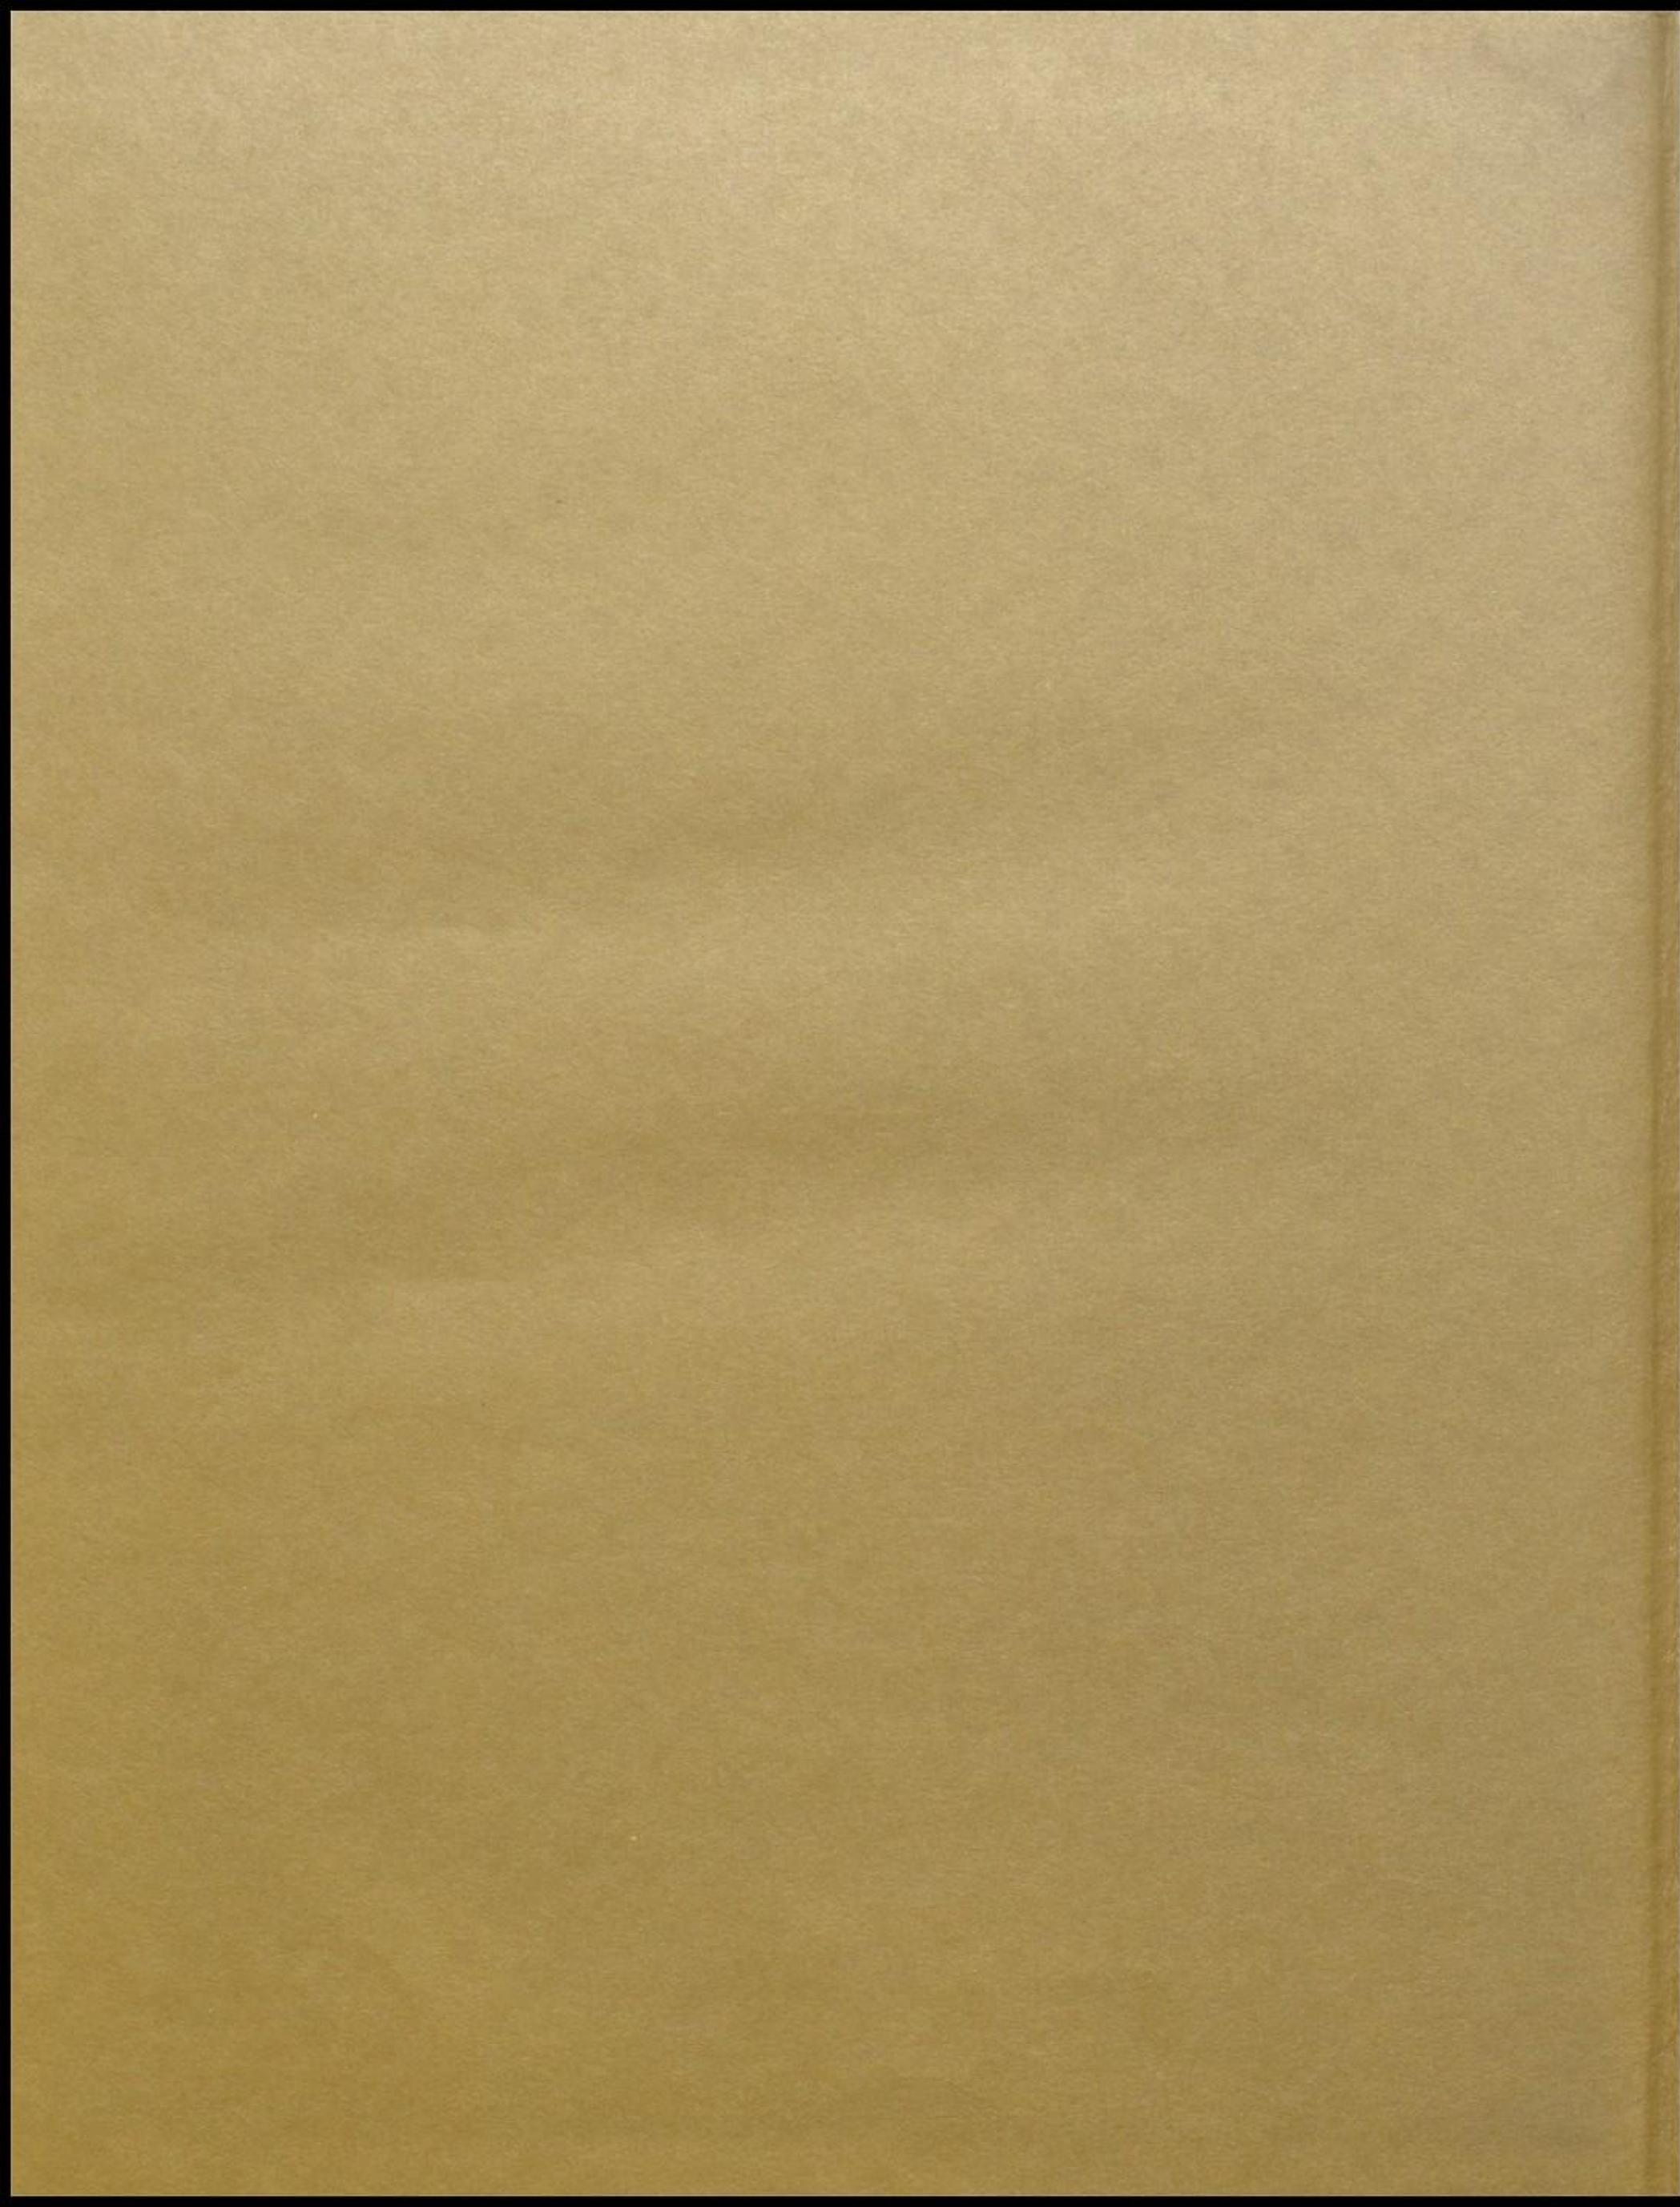

I can't think.

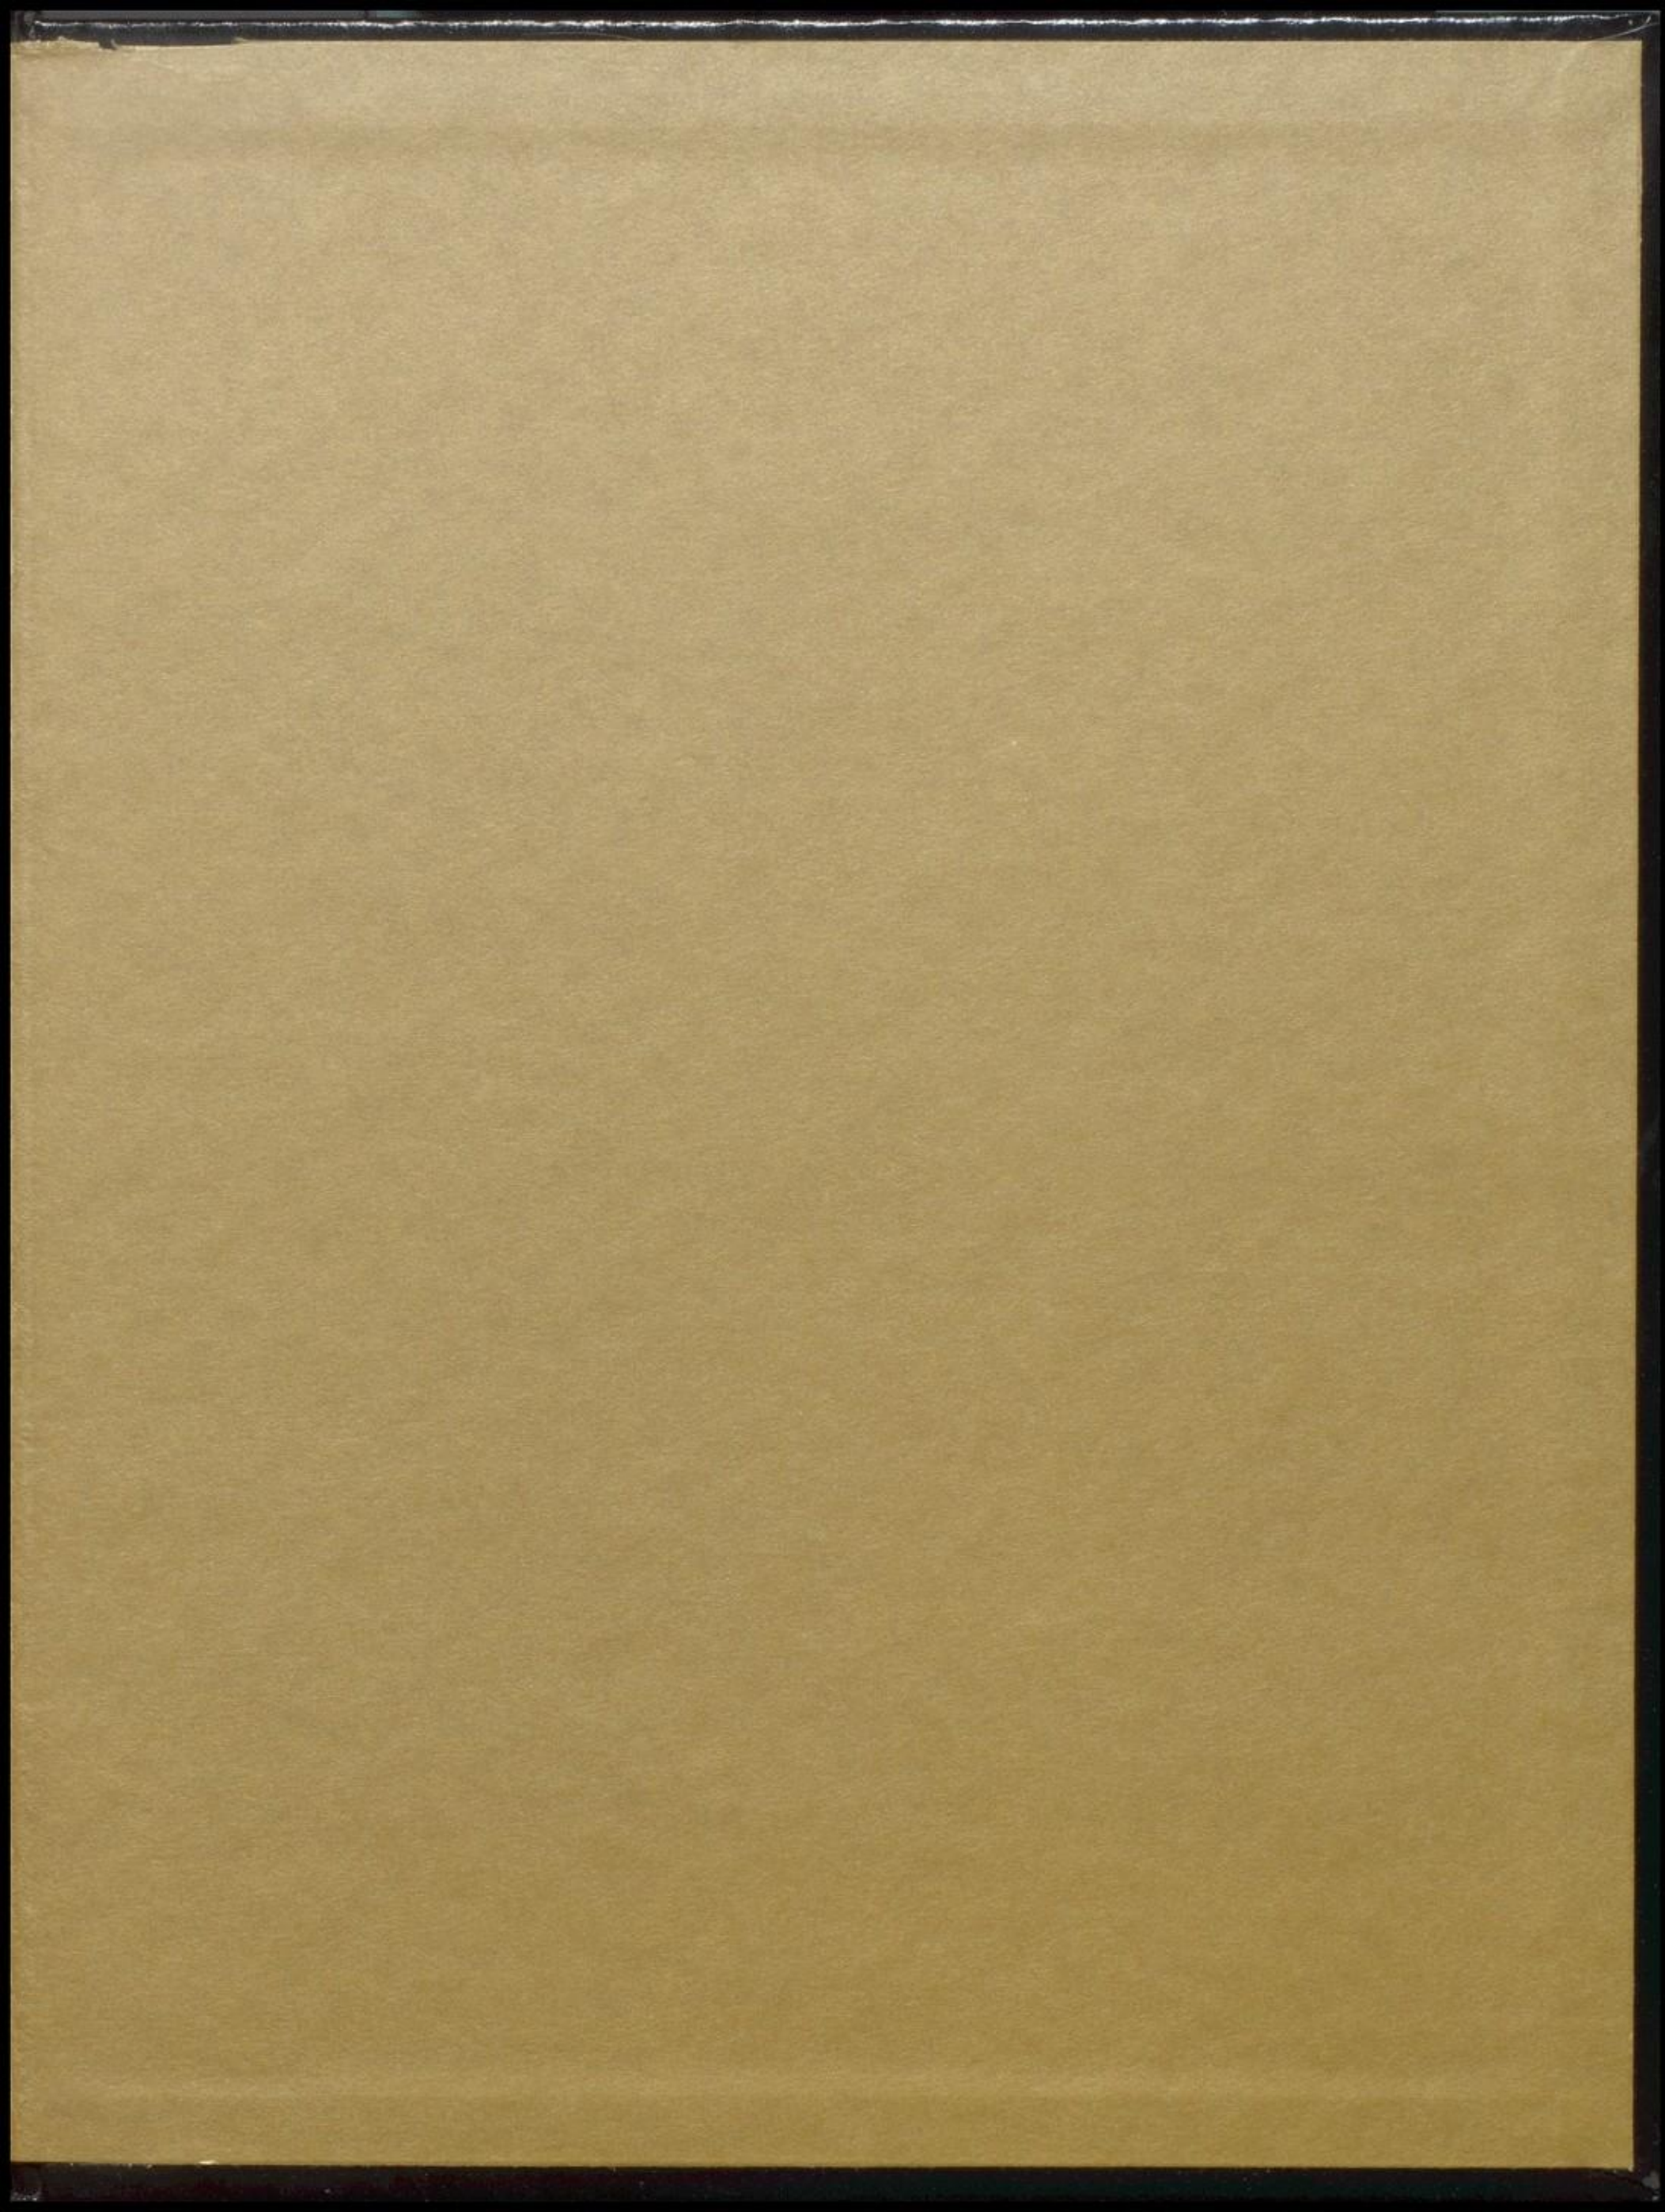

Pick me!

Holy Cow!
Eating again!
